PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

The Honorable William F. Knowland United States Senate Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Knowland:

Thank you for your letter of 28 May 1954 with its enclosure from returning the enclosure to you as to retain it.

The memorandum is a most interesting one, and we are glad to have had it called to our attention as it certainly represents something which we should look into. Mr. Dulles saw this as he was leaving the City and asked me to reply. Sincerely.
